Dedication

On behalf of the many classes before us we, the class of 1967, wish to dedicate the final yearbook of Barre High School to Mr. Leroy L. Dawson. His leadership and guidance have been appreciated by many students throughout the years. It is with our best wishes for the future that we thank him for his continued loyalty.

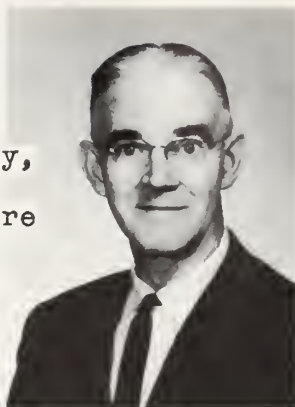

Class Cheer

Fly our colors white and blue,
To Barre High we'll e'er be true.
Record our works and deeds in heaven,
For we're the Class of '67!!!!

John Robert Flint

February 4

Just call him Mr. President. John has been our class president all of the years at Barre High School. His leadership and ability to take responsibility have kept our class on the move. He has probably devoted more time to the class than any other member. With John's school record and his little Triumph he is sure to go places and live up to "The Most Likely to Succeed."

Activities: Glee Club 2, 3; Ski Club 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 4; Soccer 3, 4; President 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Boys State 3; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Paula Jean Makovitch

June 23

Paula, one of the most popular members of the senior class, has served as a class officer for the past three years. She has done a good job as senior secretary. We will always remember her as Phyllis, the sweet little girl next door, in the Senior Play. Her amiable personality and good humor have made her a well-liked companion for any activity. Paula plans to attend Quinsigamond Community College and prepare for a career as a secretary.

Activities: Majorette 1, 2, 3; Biology Club; Treasurer 2; Secretary 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom--co-chairman; Junior Food Sale; Senior Play; Senior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social--co-chairman; Senior Play; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Nancy Lee Hale

July 23

Nancy is one of our more ambitious and hardworking class members. She always gave a helping hand in our class activities. Her great cheering ability helped Barre to win many basketball games through the years. Due to her smile and outstanding personality, Nancy has won many friends. She achieved the DAR award because of her leadership, honesty, and citizenship. We wish her the best of luck in the future and at Colby Junior this fall. Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social--chairman; Biology Club; Junior Supper; Junior Prom--co-chairman; Junior Food Sale; Class Officer 2, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Student Council 3, 4; Barretone.

time to study AFA.
Rosalie*

Rosalie Melvina Kukas

March 21

Rosalie, better known as "Rosie," plays a very active member of the senior class. She has done a tremendous job as treasurer; as everyone knows, it entails a lot of work and great patience. We wish her all the luck in becoming a fine beautician. Activities: Co-chairman of Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Playbook; Editor of Barretone; Class Officer 4; Coke Room; Student Council; Scriptus.

Lyla Mae Allen

April 4

Lyla's bright smile is always welcome wherever she goes. She is a very active girl in the Commercial Office. When any teachers have papers to be duplicated, Lyla is always there to do the job for them. We wish Lyla luck at Brom's Academy next year.

Activities: Sophomore Social; Junior Food Sale; Junior Prom; Commercial Club 3, 4; Play; Playbook; Senior Tea; Senior Bazaar; Junior Supper; Senior Supper; Barretone.

Joseph Edward Bassett

Joe is one of the shiest members of our Senior Class. But, Joe is always there to lend a helping hand when needed.

August 31

He is also an active member of the band. Lots of luck, Joe, at Worcester Trade School for Boys. Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club; 1, 2.

Louie Lewis Borelli

January 7

Louie is one of the best natured but quiet members of the Senior Class. He will always be remembered as the best trumpet player Barre High has ever produced. His golden notes will never tarnish with age because he plans to pursue a musical career after graduation. Louis has participated in every musical function at the high school and belongs to many dance bands.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2; Spaghetti Supper; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Senior Food Sale.

Robert William Brewer

November 22

Robert is better known as "Herbie." Herbie is characterized by his carefree, easy-going way. He's a great lover of the Rolling Stones and can always be found listening to their records. He's always looking for a good time and usually finds it. But aside from being a fun-lover, he's also a hard worker. The best of luck to him in fulfilling his plans for the future.

Activities: Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play.

Michael Van Brown

Full of fun is the only way to describe Mike. Where there is a group having fun, he is right in the middle. He has brightened up many a dull class for all of us. Mike's twangy guitar has added an extra note of enjoyment to the "Sounds Unlimited." If you ever see a white '60 chevy with a driver wearing a "Kockie" hat, you've seen Mike; and we wish him all the luck in the world in his future ambition.

November 21

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3; Soccer 1, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Paul Ward Brown

March 15

"Favorta" and "Chuck" are the nicknames of this neat and aggressive member of the Senior Class. When there is work to be done, Paul will always lend a hand. Every weekend Paul can be found making his usual "runs" to Greenfield. Activities: Basketball 3; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play.

Susan Hazel Brown

April 22

Susan is an outgoing person who has helped on many of our class projects. Her untiring efforts in getting all the props for the Senior Play will never be forgotten. We wish her the best of luck in preparing to become an elementary school teacher.

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 2, 3; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Junior Supper-co-chairman; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper--co-chairman; Christmas Social; Senior Play; Senior Food Sale.

Richard Allen Cauvin

Rich is one of the more ambitious students in the senior class.

"Cauvin" was always ready to help in anything the class did.

"Imbs" will always be remembered in the halls of Barre High as a cute little peck of trouble.

June 12

Activities: Soccer 1, 2, 3; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play.

Dana Albert Clark

April 8

Dana gives the appearance of being the quiet, reserved type, but after being with him you notice a difference. His interests lie in fast cars and new experiences. His witty ways make him fun to be with. His consideration for others is one of his best qualities. We wish him the best of luck in the future.

Activities: Soccer 1; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play.

Nancy Eileen Cummings

April 5

Nancy's unforgettable laughter has graced the hallowed halls of Barre High for four fun-filled years. Her happiness has generated a feeling of joy and captured for everyone the spirit of friendship. Nancy's willingness to help and take responsibility has helped to make many of our class activities a success.

Activities: Ski Club 1, 2, 4; Sophomore Social; Junior Food Sale; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Food Sale; Senior Supper; Coke Room; Biology Club; Senior Play; Senior Tea; Senior Food Sale--co-chairman.

Richard Francis Cummings

Rich, one of the quiet members of our class, is always willing to help. His efforts in working in many school activities show this. We wish him all the luck in the years following graduation.

December 31

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Biology Club; Senior Supper; Junior Supper; Senior Bazaar; Play; Junior Food Sale; Senior Food Sale; Pro Merito Society; Sophomore Social.

John Addison Cutting

January 19

John Cutting, "Nutman," is always there to help. He is one of the more popular students in our class. John was co-captain of the basketball team this year and has played baseball throughout his four years at Barre High.

Activities: Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Food Sale; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Barretone.

Fredrick Michael DiLibero February 14

Freddy is considered one of our more active classmates. His happy-go-lucky attitude makes him a popular member of the class.. You can always tell when Freddy is around by his turbulent laughter.

Activities: Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 3; Sophomore Social; Junior Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Supper; Senior Play Tickets; Senior Bazaar.

Joseph Peter Duhamel

Joe is liked by all his classmates because of his cheerful way. He's always lent a helping hand when needed. No matter where your future years bring you, we all know you'll be a success.

Activities: Glee Club 1; Junior Supper; Senior Supper; Junior Food Sale; Senior Food Sale.

Helen Donna Dymon

November 8

Donna is one of the studious members of our class, better known as "Tootsie" to her classmates. She always lent a helping hand in many of our school activities. She also is a talented accordionist along with many other assets. We know Donna will be a success in anything she attempts. Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 1, 2, 3; Callahan Contest 1, 2, 3; Scriptus 1; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Prize Speaking 3; Pro Merito; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Chairman of Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Senior Food Sale; Magazine co-chairman Barretone.

Paul Warren Flagg

November 13

Paul is one of the more unique members of the class of '67. This trait, coupled with his great amount of intelligence, combines to make an outstanding personality--one that is seemingly aloft at first glance, yet which is really sociable and pleasing if known well enough. Although he tries not to show it, Paul is an avid reader, a true student, and a much deeper thinker than his nonchalance would attest to. We shall remember him for his theatrical talent in the Senior Play.

Activities: Soccer1, 2; Spaghetti Supper; Senior Play.

Diane Teresa Fritscher

Diane has always been a busy member of our class. She spent most of her time in the "Coke Room" which has been a great success. After graduation, Diane plans to go to Ward Schools in Worcester.

September 27

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Sophomore Social; Biology Club 2; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Play; Playbook; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Susan Ellen Habershaw

December 19

Sue is well known by all her classmates as being active and friendly. Her help in many activities in the past four years is greatly appreciated by her fellow classmates. We wish her luck in her future studies at New England School of Accounting in the fall. Activities: Band 1; Glee Club 3; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Playbook; Senior Food Sale; Scriptus 3, 4; Ice Cream Room; Magazine Chairman; Barretone.

Donna Lee Hudson

November 7

Although Donna is one of the smaller members of the class, she is packed with energy. Her willingness to work has contributed much to our class events. She plans to become a secretary, and we know she will be a great success.

Activities: Majorette 1, 2; Secretary 1; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale--co-chairman; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Bazaar--chairman; Senior Tea--chairman; Play; Playbook; Cheerleader 4; Barretone.

Edward Paul Jackson

Eddie, one of the tallest members of our class, has supported the basketball team for many years. It is very rare to find him in bad spirits. When there was work to do you would usually find him around. His sense of humor was always welcome.

April 29

Activities: Ski Club; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Student Council; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Playbook; Barretone.

Mary Jane Kasputis

September 1

"Casper" is the "candy buyer" of the Senior Class of 1967. We will never quite be able to forget the bags of candy that were jammed into her pocketbook whenever a teacher came into view. Good Luck, "Casper." We know you will be a hit in whatever field of work you choose.

Activities: Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Play; Playbook; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Ronald Clifford Keddy

December 10

"Ked" is one of the active members of the class. If there is work to be done, Ronnie is always willing to lend a helping hand. His considerate and friendly manner have won him many friends.

Activities: Band 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 3, 4; Basketball manager 4; Soccer 1, 2; Prize Speaking 1; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; French Club 3; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Student Government Day.

Joseph Frank Kruckas

Joe, nicknamed "Barracuda Baby," is always around to add a little bit of "humor." Whenever there is work to be done, Joe is always around. His friendliness adds sparkle to the class.

January 28

Activities: Band 1, 2; Basketball 3; assistant manager 3; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Food Sale; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Senior Play; Senior Food Sale.

Alpha Peter Madsen

July 7

Buzzy seems to be one of the more quiet members of our class until you get to know him. Once he is out with a crowd of friends he turns into a different person--one who knows how to have fun and likes to see others have fun. Buzzy is a friend of everyone in the class, and we are sure his great personality will be an asset to him in the future.

Activities: Basketball 2, 3; Vice-President 1; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Play.

Nicholas Charles Mallozzi

February 27

Nick is one of our more active members of the class. His interest in music is focused on drumming, and he does a great job at it in his own band, "Sounds Unlimited." He has helped out in many of our class activities and especially in his efforts to make the car wash at the Senior Bazaar a success. Although his part in the Senior Play was small, he handled the "Expressman" very well. We wish Nick the best of luck at Worcester Industrial Technical Institute.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 1, 2, 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Junior Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Senior Play.

Maureen Anne March

Versatile and ambitious best describes Maureen. Her class spirit reflects her fiery red hair. Maureen worked diligently as decorating chairman of the Junior Prom and it proved to be one of the best Junior Prom's ever! Her avid flare for art will continue, since she plans to enter an art school in September. We wish her luck.

August 15

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Senior Supper; Junior Supper; Christmas Social; Class Officer 2; Senior Tea; Senior Play; Biology Club.

Deborah Ann Marshall

August 15

Cute and quiet are probably the adjectives which best describe Debby. Her quiet but congenial personality has won her many friends throughout her years at Barre High School. Her willingness to help and her friendly disposition has been an asset to the class of "67."

Activities: Sophomore Social; Junior Supper; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper.

Lawrence Francis Marshall

April 28

Larry has perhaps been one of the most energetic boys to enter Barre High. During his high school years he has always been willing to help in class activities and in his junior year helped to construct much of our Junior Prom decorum. A winning personality has made Larry many friends and will, we hope, continue to reward him with future success.

Activities: Baseball 2, 4; Glee Club 1; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom; Junior Supper; Senior Play; Sophomore Social; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Callehan Contest.

Mary Ann Mesulaitis

Mary, who added a great deal to the success of the Senior Play, has an outstanding personality which accounts for her many friends. Mary was always around with her car when the class needed her.

January 26

Activities: Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Co-chairman of Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Play; Playbook; Barretone.

Ronald Cushman McKinstry

February 17

Ronald is one of the quiet members of the class. However, those who have known him as a close friend have found him to be sincere and conscientious.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Sophomore Social

Mark Lynn Morehead

September 19

The Senior Class will always remember Mark as Mr. Lovejoy in the Senior Play. Mark is an all-around student who enjoys playing his trumpet and singing. We wish him all the luck at Lowell Tech next fall.

Activities: Band 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Callahan Contest 3; Senior Supper; Play.

Michael Edward Moriarty

August 19

We were glad to see Michael back at B. H. S. after a one-year absence. Michael has a great business mind, and we are sure that he will go far in his chosen career in business after graduation. Lots of luck, Mike.

William Wray Neylon

May 8

Bill, through his years at Barre High, has shown us his ability to do much work in class activities. He was always active in everything. Bill is continuously adding his wit to some boring class or study hall. He hopes to teach when he finishes his education at Westfield State.

Activities: Band 1, 2; Glee Club 4; Basketball 3; Baseball 1; Soccer 3; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Student Council 2, 3, 4; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Tea; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Senior Food Sale.

Avis Florence Nichols

November 17

Avis, who seems quite reserved to many, is considered an outgoing person. Once she is out with a crowd of friends she becomes a different person. She likes to have fun and likes to see others have fun.

Activities: Spaghetti Supper; Commercial Club 3, 4; Play; Playbook; Scriptus 4; Barretone.

Martin James O'Connor

Marty, otherwise known as "Locust," seems to be one of the quieter boys of our class until you get to know him. His ambition and pleasing personality, as well as his knowledge of cars, will help him in years to come. We wish him success in the future. Activities: Ski Club 1; Basketball 1; Baseball 1; Senior Bazaar; Play.

June 30

Charles Walter O'Donnell

August 12

Charlie is one of the quieter boys in our senior class. His excellent disposition and conscientious outlook on life have won him the best of everything in the future.

Activities: Glee Club; Baseball; Soccer 2; Secretary 1; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar.

Antonio Joseph Palano

August 1

Intelligent and witty best describes Tony. Tony has been an honor roll student all through high school and plans to attend college to be trained for a business career. He has received many honors as the best player with the highest batting average on the baseball team. Tony was awarded school letters for his fine service on the team in leading it to many victories. He has worked ambitiously on many school activities and will always be remembered as "Chester" in the Senior Play.

Activities: Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council; Class Officer 2; Spaghetti Supper; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play; Senior Food Sale.

Ralph Whitney Perkins

Whenever history is concerned, Ralph is at hand to pick a debate. His knowledge of past events and willingness to fight is brought forth, especially in his views concerning current events. Ralph will long be remembered for his kind and courteous manner. We wish him luck at the University of Mass. in the Fall.

December 12

Activities: Basketball 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Food Sale; French Club 3; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Senior Play; Playbook; Senior Food Sale.

Joyce Mae Phelps

May 11

Joyce is the quietest member of the senior class, although once you get to know Joyce, you find her most enjoyable. We wish Joyce much success in her future plans for the service.

Activities: Spaghetti Supper; Senior Tea; Play.

Rosilia Bertha Rival

April 26

Rosilia is always "on the go" despite her after-school job at Marion's. You can always find Rosilia in the commercial office typing for someone or lending a helping hand. We wish her success in the future.

Activities: Spaghetti Supper; Commercial Club 3, 4; Play; Playbook; Scriptus 4; Barretone.

Patricia Ann Roberts

Pat is always there to lend a helping hand. Her friendly disposition and calm manner will long be remembered by her fellow classmates. We wish her the best in her future career.

March 17

Activities: Ski Club 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Commercial Club 3, 4; Scriptus 3, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play; Playbook; Barretone.

John Joseph Rogowski

February 23

John is a very active member of our class, especially in sports. He has played an important part in band. He is better known as "Checo" to the members of his class.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 2, 3, 4; Class officer 1; Student Council 1; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Prize Speaking 3.

Patricia Ann Salvadore

March 29

"Patty" is one of the happiest members of our class. She has a bright and cheerful personality which will carry her a long way. Pat is always ready to lend a helping hand whenever there is work to be done. Pat plans to further her education at Quinsigimond Community College. We wish her the best of luck in the future.

Activities: Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Carter Sawtell

Carter is not only our photographer but the Barre Gazette's. No matter where you see Nick he always has his camera. Carter hopes to become a professional photographer. We wish him the best of luck.

September 27

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Ski Club 3; Basketball 4; Soccer 3; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Play; Junior Prom; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Senior Food Sale; Barretone.

Albert Edward Sinkewicz

March 17

Quiet, reserved, and a deep thinker is the best way to describe "Alby." He has always been willing to help the class in its activities in any way he could. His height was a great help in the decorations for our Junior Prom. "Alby" is quiet, but he lets himself be known by his small but loud motorcycle.

Activities: Ski Club 1; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Supper; Senior Food Sale.

David Lyle Spinney

October 2

David has shown, throughout his four years at Barre High School, his ability to perform both scholastically and in outside activities. Dave has been one of the many students who has made our class projects successful. As a basketball and soccer player he has shown good sportsmanship, always holding up his end of the game.

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Basketball 3, 4; Soccer 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Food Sale; Junior Prom; Boys State.

Diane Mary Thibault

August 22

Diane was a very active member of our class. She helped vigorously with the decorations for the Junior Prom. We wish her the best of luck in the future.

Activities: Junior Prom; Junior Supper; Barretone.

Daniel John Trifilo

December 17

Danny, a dependable man in any social or class event, is one of the hard workers of the class. When called upon to participate in class activities it seems that he always does more than enough help. His trig classmates will always remember him for his arguments with Mrs. Upham.

Activities: Ski Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Soccer 2, 3, 4; Sophomore Social; Biology Club; Spaghetti Supper; Junior Prom; Junior Food Sale; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Christmas Social; Play; Senior Food Sale.

Cynthia Jane Valente

January 4

Cynthia is one of the most popular girls at Barre High School and can always be found where the action is. She is the kind of girl who is always looking for a good time and usually finds it. She is also a marvel at drawing. Cynthia has chosen a career in art and we wish her the best of luck.

Activities: Glee Club 1, 2, 3; Sophomore Social; Spaghetti Supper; Commercial Club 3, 4; Senior Bazaar; Senior Supper; Play; Playbook; Scriptus 4; Barretone.

History

Our freshman year was an experience for each of us. We were in a strange building with new teachers and different courses. Being no exception, we also had a timid feeling toward the so-called "upperclassmen," about whom we'd heard so much.

At our first class meeting in the fall, we elected class officers:

John Flint, president
Donna Hudson, secretary

Alpha Madsen, vice-president
John Rogowski, treasurer

The next thing on the agenda was the Magazine Drive. We soon found that we were inexperienced salesmen and, as a result, upheld the usual freshman place--last. It was no surprise when we found ourselves in the back of study hall doing exercises at the annual Ice Cream Social.

During our first year of high school, several members of our class represented us by participating in sports. Michael Brown joined the basketball team, while William Neylon, John Cutting, Fred DiLibero, John Flint, and Charles O'Donnell played baseball. Also, Paula Makovitch, Frances Ziemba, Gail Fox, Barbara McCauley, and Donna Hudson represented our class as baton twirlers.

Prize Speaking, taking place in March, was the next annual event. We congratulated those members who took part: Ronald Keddy, first place; Paul Flagg, second; William Neylon, third; and John Flint, fourth.

As our first year of high school came to an end, we began to look forward with great anxiety to our next year when we would fill the role as sophomores.

Before we knew it, summer had passed and September was upon us. Again we ascended the steps of Barre High, this time with less trepidation than we had experienced the preceding year. We were now full-fledged sophomores.

Our first business was to elect officers:

John Flint, president
Paula Makovitch, secretary

Antonio Palano, vice-president
Maureen March, treasurer

The entire class was full of vim and vigor when our first activity, the Sophomore Social, approached in October. With the eagerness shown by all the class members, our first event was bound to be a great success. Nancy Hale was chairman and, although this was the first year this social function was to be without entertainment, an enjoyable evening was passed.

In the Magazine Drive we managed to come in third---the usual sophomore place. Consequently, we were obliged to provide entertainment for the satisfaction of the seniors.

Again, many of the male members of our class took part in sports. Playing basketball as J.V.'s were John Cutting, Fred DiLibero, Alpha Madsen, and Michael Brown. Edward Jackson represented our class on the varsity team. Chosen as cheerleaders that year were two members of our class, Diane Thibault and Nancy Hale. Paula Makovitch, Donna Hudson and Frances Ziemba maintained their positions on the majorette squad.

The annual Prize Speaking Contest was held at Fellowship Hall, and this year John Flint represented us, finishing in second place.

Our sophomore year had been new and exciting for all of us, but we all looked forward to becoming juniors and receiving the title of upperclassmen.

On entering Barre High the following September, we were bursting with great expectations for a full and exciting year.

An early meeting was held for the election of officers and again John Flint was chosen president. The other officers were: vice-president, Charles O'Donnell secretary, Paula Makovitch
treasurer, Nancy Hale

In the Magazine Drive we placed second. Again we found ourselves satisfying the seniors as they roared, "Entertainment! Entertainment!"

During our junior year we were fortunate to have many of our same members take part in sports. Edward Jackson and John Cutting once again represented us on the Varsity Team, while David Spinney, Michael Brown, Ralph Perkins, John Flint, William Neylon, Paul Brown and Alpha Madsen played for the J.V.'s.

In February we began to make plans for the big event--our Junior Prom. "Carousel" was chosen as the theme, and Paula Makovitch and Nancy Hale were appointed co-chairmen with Mr. Cronin acting as our advisor. We all congratulated Maureen March for doing such a fine job as head of decorations. On May 20, proud of all our effort, we heartily agreed that it was the best prom ever.

Our Junior Supper was another important class activity. Susan Brown and Donna Dymon, as co-chairmen, along with the rest of the class, did a fine job in making our Junior Supper the success it was.

In Prize Speaking, Donna Dymon and John Rogowski both placed first in their divisions, and Charles O'Donnell second. As our Junior year came to a close, we looked forward to being seniors with great anticipation. We could hardly believe that our remaining year at Barre High was almost upon us.

In September of 1966 our class once again returned to the familiar halls of Barre High--this time as seniors. Our final and unquestionably most important year lay ahead of us. But, as we were about to experience, it would pass all too quickly.

Beginning with our first class meeting, we chose new officers to serve and see us through our most eventful year. They were:
John Flint, president Nancy Hale, vice-president
Paula Makovitch, secretary Rossie Kukas, treasurer
Mrs. Fagnoli, Mrs. Messier and Mr. Zane were our class advisors.

Before we knew it, October was upon us and it was time for our Senior Bazaar. It was voted this year that the Bazaar be limited to a car wash and the selling of apples and cider. We'll never forget those long hours of pecking apples and washing bottles. Because of the untiring effort of the members of the class, our Bazaar proved to be a great financial success.

Our next class activity was the Senior Tea. Here our parents were given a chance to meet and become acquainted with the faculty. Donna Hudson was chosen as chairman with Mary Masulis and Paula Makovitch chosen as co-chairmen of this event. Entertainment was provided by Louis Borelli, Donna Dymon and Susan Habershaw.

Finally, the greatly awaited day of the Ice Cream Social arrived. As usual, we as seniors had attained first place in the Magazine Drive. We'll never forget the confusion and chaos which reigned during this event.

Next on the agenda was our Alumni Social. Chosen chairman of the event was Maureen March who, we must all agree, did an excellent job in making the last Christmas Social a success! Although few people attended this occasion, those who were present had a fine time. Music was provided by Gaylord Viner and His Orchestra.

Through the busy winter months some of the more athletic-minded members of our class managed to find time to participate in sports. Those taking part in basketball included: John Cutting, Fred DiLibero, Eddie Jackson, John Flint, David Spinney and Ralph Perkins. Donna Hudson and Nancy Hale represented our class by cheering the boys on.

Immediately following our Christmas vacation we began to think of our Senior Play. The Play, entitled Our Girls, was a comedy in three acts. Directing the play were Mrs. Fagnoli and Mrs. Hopkins, to whom we would all like to express our greatest thanks. The Senior Play was presented in Rugles Lane Auditorium on February 17 & 18 and was enjoyed by all both nights. Included in the cast were: Mary Masulaitis, Mark Morehead, Michael Brown, Larry Marshall, Paul Flagg, Maureen March, Paula Makovitch, Donna Dymon, Tony Palano, Nancy Cummings and Nick Mallozzi.

Soon April was upon us, and our thoughts turned to the Class Trip which we had anticipated for four years. April 17 was set aside for the day of departure. We traveled by bus to Washington where we spent four glorious days. Our fifth day was spent in New York City.

Finally, our senior year was at a close--our high school days were gone forever. Although we can never bring back these past four years, we are able to relive the happy moments and pleasures through our everlasting memories.

Prophecy

It is now the year of 1987, and the Spaceport of Barre is crowded with the graduates of the Class of 1967 returning for their twentieth reunion. The newly elected President of the United States, John Flint, stepped from his private flying saucer to be greeted by William Neylon, chairman of the Board of Selectmen in Barre. President Flint is informed by Selectman Neylon that his former classmates are spread around the Universe.

Alaska--Lyla Allen and Rosalie Kukas now own a chain of prosperous beauty salons. The Allen-Kukas Igloo Shoppe has become the "in place."

Switzerland--The new Bassett Ski Resort has been opened by Joseph Bassett. We find the top instructor to be Daniel Trifilo.

New York--Louis Borelli has taken the place of Harry James at the famous Saucer Lounge.

Florida--Robert Brewer, Martin O'Conner, and Dana Clark, having won the Indianapolis 500 three times each, have pooled their money to buy the track.

Rome--Susan Brown and Patricia Salvadore have been teaching at the famous Montessori School and have had reports of dropouts in the school.

Hollywood--Playing in the famous Red Sunset Strip in Hollywood are Nick Mallozzi and Mike Brown. They are now working for "Brain" Epstein.

Barre--Fredrick DiLibero, Joseph Krukas, and Paul Brown are the new members of the Barre Wool Combing Co. Board of Directors. They plan to propose, at the next meeting, shorter working hours and more coffee breaks.

Boston--John Cutting and Ed Jackson are now on the starting five of the Eighty-Sevener's, the hottest basketball team in the Universe.

Worcester--Joseph Duhamel and Al Sinkewicz now own the largest dairy farms in New England. They have invested in the "new" cow which produces a different flavored milk each day.

Virgo III--Susan Habershaw and Donna Dymon, captains of the starship fleet, are now exploring new planets.

South Africa--Ronald Keddy and Larry Marshall are now constructing new grass huts for the natives.

Baltimore--Ralph Perkins just completed a criminal trial to clear a former math teacher for income tax evasion.

Paris--Busy at the famous Sawtell Studio of Photography is another graduate, Carter Sawtell. His subject is the famed model Avis Nichols, who models the latest space fashions.

Boston--Anthony Palano is a professor at Harvard University. He has proved a great mathematical formula which enabled the U. S. to land the first saucer on Pluto a few years ago.

New Jersey--David Spinney has finished the new edition of his chemistry textbook which is entitled the Chemistry Spin Book.

Texas--Pat Roberts has accepted a million-dollar contract as interior decorator in the home of Lucy (Johnson) Nugent.

Greenwich Village--Cynthia Valente, the famous artist, is now painting protest signs in the village.

Leominster--Mary Kasputis has been voted "Mother of the Year" by the Massachusetts Mothers Association.

Michigan--Donna Hudson and Rosilia Rival are now top secretaries with the Ford Motor Company, working hand in hand with the space-car team of technologists.

New Hampshire--Nancy Hale has just found a cure for "Space Spotis," a dreaded disease on Jupiter, through her long studies at her Alma Mater.

Texas--Deborah Marshall has become the first woman jockey in the United States and has broken all previous speed records.

Pluto--Charles O'Donnell owns his own factory which manufactures toy martians.

Pittsfield--Maureen March is the head of the Department of Public Expressways. She recently dedicated the Mono-Express, the fastest mode of transportation in the world.

Petersham--John Rogowski is now the chief of the Audubon Society studying rare creatures found in Space.

Florida--Diane Fritscher has opened her fifty-second Ice Cream Shoppe. All her valuable knowledge from the "Coke" room proved very helpful.

Petersham--Nancy Cummings and Richard Cummings are part owners of the NCC Bus Company. They make daily runs between Petersham, Barre, and Boston.

Africa--Michael Moriarty is now a big game hunter in Liberia where he is collecting rare animals for a new zoo in the United States.

Paxton--Mary Masulaitis is now the Head Mistress at Anna Maria College.

Las Vegas--Paula Makovitch is leading a troupe of a-go-go-dancers. Their latest hit dance is "GO GO TO SPACE!"

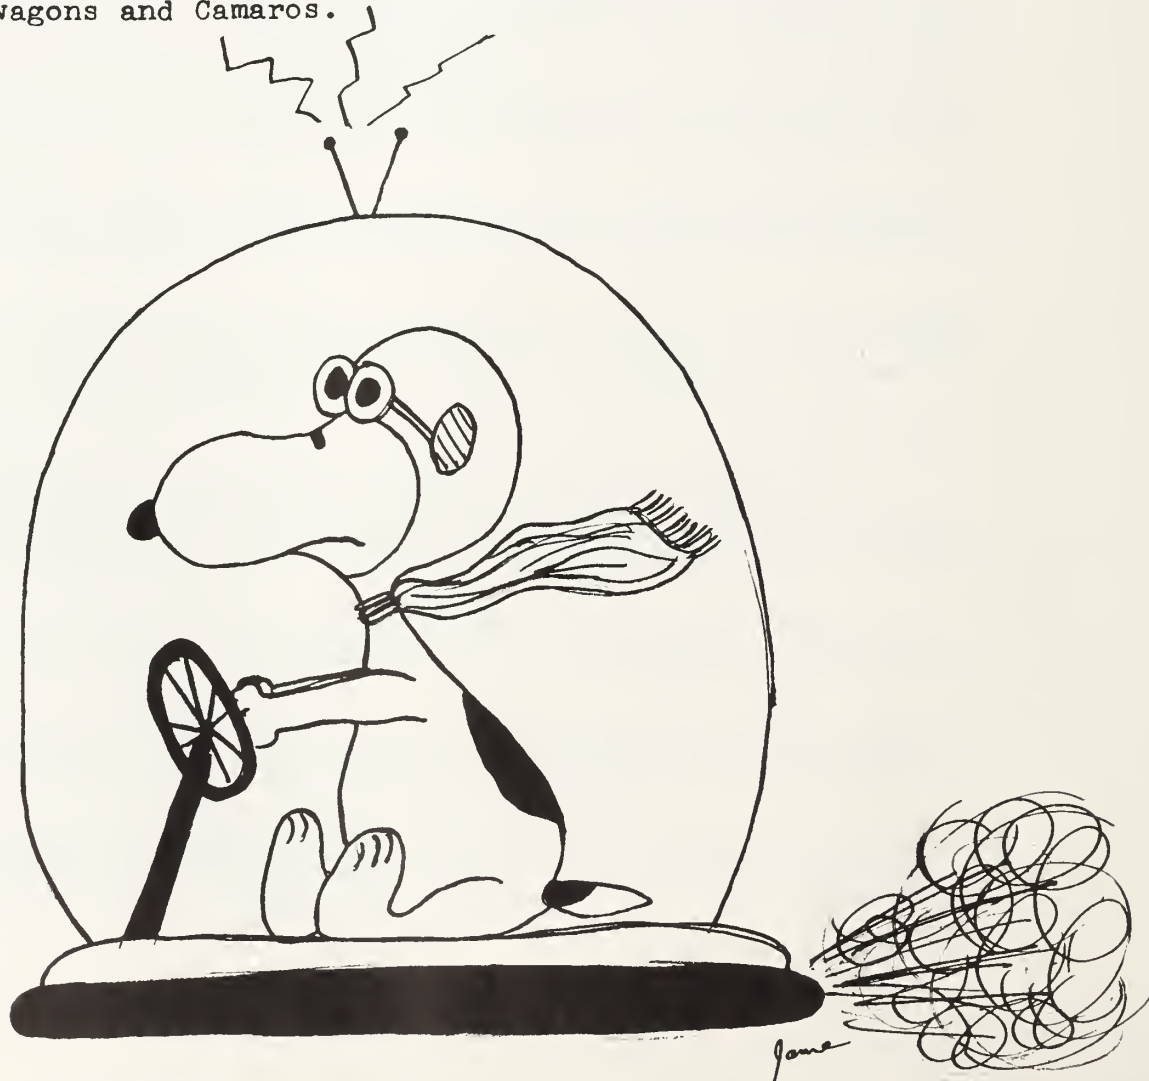

Hawaii--Paul Flagg has been recently seen surfing on the Pipeline. He claims that no other beach in the universe compares with this one.

Cape Kennedy--Ronald McKinstry has introduced an economical space ship for the family man to travel to the neighboring planets.

Mars--Joyce Phelps, America's leading horsewoman, has opened a new school for horse lovers on Mars.

Saturn--Mark Morehead is currently teaching music in the Saturn Public Schools. Mark agrees that the citizens there have the best appreciation for the "earthy" sounds.

Chicago--Alpha Madsen and Richard Cauvin just opened a new Automotive ship here. It is their ninety-ninth such business to repair Volkswagons and Camaros.

Class Trip

Monday, April 17, 1967, finally arrived, and the seniors were up by 6:00 and off to board the bus for five unforgettable days of excitement in Washington and New York.

The bus left at 7 A. M. with forty-five seniors, accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. Merton B. Baker and Mr. & Mrs. Michael Staiti, for our eight-hour ride. Although the trip was long, it was pleasant, and everyone was filled with anticipation of the days ahead.

Arriving at 4:30 P. M., we checked into the Annapolis Hotel and were off on our own to see the city and enjoy the sights for the remainder of the day. Upon returning to the hotel we found that it was completely filled with students from all over the country, and few members of the class got more than a couple of hours of sleep that night.

Tuesday morning we quickly ate breakfast and were off on an all-day tour of the city and its surroundings. We viewed many government buildings on our way to Arlington National Cemetery. There we viewed the changing of the Honor Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and then paid homage at the new grave site of the late President Kennedy.

The balance of the morning was spent at Mount Vernon, the colonial home of George and Martha Washington. In the background of this beautiful mansion, stretches the wide Potomac River. Our lunch of delicious southern fried chicken was eaten at the Penn Daw Restaurant in Alexandria. Then we proceeded on our afternoon tour.

The capitol building was now our destination. The magnificence of this great meeting place of Congress will not easily be forgotten. We were led through to the chambers of the House of Representatives and then to the Senate. Outside on the grass, the class picture was taken with the capitol in the background.

This concluded our afternoon tour. After returning to the hotel for an hour, the whole class went out to eat at a steak house. In the evening we viewed Washington with all its beautiful buildings and lights. We visited the Jefferson Memorial and then the Lincoln Memorial, and finally climbed the 898 steps of the Washington Monument to view the city. The remainder of the night was left to ourselves.

Wednesday we were up bright and early to begin our first tour in Washington. First on our schedule was the Bureau of Printing and Engraving where we viewed first hand the actual printing of United States paper currency. Next we got a view of the inside of the Library of Congress and were amazed at the tremendous number of books shelved there. Then we took a short tour through the Supreme Court building and were off to see the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

After lunch in the Shrine cafeteria we were left with the entire afternoon to tour the many buildings of the Smithsonian Institute, and then to go shopping or return to the hotel to catch up on a little sleep.

That Wednesday night the class took a trip on a ferry boat down the Potomac, along with a crowd of nearly one thousand other students. A band played the music for a huge dance. The boat stopped at an amusement park on an island and after an hour returned up the river to dock. It was quite an experience.

Thursday morning we said good-bye to Washington and the Annapolis Hotel, as our week was nearly done, and were off to New York where we were to be accommodated at the Hotel Taft. We arrived about noon and after unloading our bags we went to visit the National Broadcasting Company, where we saw the television show Match Game in progress.

That night was our last on the trip, and we visited Radio City Music Hall and saw the Rockettes and the movie How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying. After that the night was our own and most of the seniors went "out on the town."

The next morning we toured the United Nations Building and then had the remainder of the morning to go shopping or to see the sights.

At 2:00 P. M., forty-five still "raring to go" seniors and four weary chaperones boarded the bus for our long ride back to Barre. Everyone regretted leaving, but we all knew that it had been a great trip, and in the thoughts of the senior class were the memories of the wonderful sights and experiences of Washington and New York.

SENIOR BAZAAR

Saturday, October 15, 1966, was the day of our Senior Bazaar. It was a perfect day, with the aroma of apples and cider once again filling the air. By 12:00 the buzzing of anxious buyers could be heard, while several seniors rushed around to make deliveries.

The rest area on Route 122 was the scene of our Car Wash, with seniors and cars scattered all around.

Our decision to leave out a few of the traditional activities did not hamper our successful day.

Junior Prom

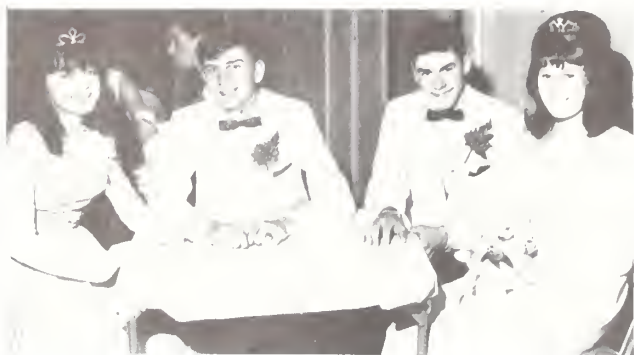

The long awaited night of May 20, 1966, finally arrived, and everyone there was on a CAROUSEL. Under the brightly colored big top of yellow, shocking pink, and white, were gaily decorated ticket booths and balloons. As we strolled through the fairgrounds, we passed a tunnel of love, a cotton candy booth, and a miniature tent for the chaperones. In the center was a huge revolving carousel with prancing ponies of pink, yellow, and white.

Our chaperones were: Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Cronin, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Flint, Mr. & Mrs. Irving Hale, Mr. & Mrs. Edward Nevlon. The music was provided by Gaylord Viner and his Orchestra. Our ring bearers were: Eileen Spinney, Joseph Marshall, Laureen Spinney, and Mark Thibault.

Our prom began with the introduction of prom-enaders to the chaperones and was followed by the high-lighted Presentation of Class Rings and the Grand March.

We are the ones who have been waiting for you to come,
 Here in the night of May,
 While we sit here,
 All of our friends in dance will will stay with us always.
 This is the night we will have with you,
 To get our arms and to sing for you,
 Class of sixty-seven, here is to you,
 And the years to come,
 ever-through life anew,
 We will always be true to you.

SENIOR PLAY

The last Senior Class Play of Barre High School was held on February 17 and 18, 1967, in the Ruggles Lane Auditorium. OUR GIRLS by Conrad Seiler was voted by all who saw the performances as the best play produced by a senior class from Barre High. Mrs. John Fargnoli and Mrs. Russell Hopkins directed the three-act comedy farce. Only with their excellent leadership were we able to have such an outstanding performance.

The entire senior class was involved in the production of the play. The eleven seniors who took part in the cast did an excellent job of portraying their roles. Other class members were helpful behind the scenes in make-up, sound effects, and ticket sales. Construction of the set was the big job left to the skilled boys in the class. They constructed such a fine looking living room that many found it very home-like. Many of the commercial students spent long hours typing the playbook and arranging the attractive pages.

The play concerned itself with the complications of a rich English aunt who came to visit her family in America to leave a large fortune for the "girls." All her life she has accepted the fact that her nephews were, to her, nieces, and numerous plots revolved around this falsehood.

Elmer and Mildred Lovejoy, portrayed by Mark Morehead and Mary Masulaitis, were faced with the problem of keeping the boys looking like girls. But Hulda, their Swedish maid, played by Nancy Cummings, didn't make their task easier. The Lovejoy's three sons, who during two acts of the play were dressed as girls, played the star roles. Paul Flagg portrayed Jesse, the youngest son who is the most eager troublemaker, Larry Marshall played Vivian, the boy who was to receive Aunt Jesse's birthday check on "her" sixteenth birthday, and Michael Brown was Francis, the son most eager to play the phony role. Numerous complications arose before the arrival of Aunt Jesse from England. A next-door neighbor, Mrs. Wattles, played by Donna Dymon, kept insisting that a bill be paid by the Lovejoys for damages to her broken bay window caused by Jesse. Each time she moved onto the stage, her son, Chester, portrayed by Tony Palano (the real guilty one) would follow her. Paula Makovitch, as Phyllis Wattles, lent a delicate hand to the action. She had no idea of the plot against Aunt Jesse and questioned Vivian's whereabouts. Nicholas Mallozzi played the expressman who was completely unaware of the family's odd "girls." Maureen March's dynamic portrayal in the role of Aunt Jesse added much to the play. Aunt Jesse was also unaware of the peculiarities in the Lovejoy family until the last minute.

The Senior Class would like to thank Mrs. Fargnoli and Mrs. Hopkins for their patience and superb direction. We are also grateful for Mrs. Messier's fine job on the playbook and Mr. Russell Hopkins' help in constructing the set.

Underclassmen

Class of 68

We chose class officers who were: Jerry Palano, President; Francis Peltier, Vice President; Peter Fargnoli, Treasurer; Janis Greene, Secretary. Our class was well-represented in all fields of sports. Paul Cilley was high scorer in basketball.

Who will ever forget our lovely prom, with "Roman Holiday" as the theme. Jinx Klein and Janis Greene were co-chairmen. Perry Conte and His Orchestra provided entertainment, and the grand march was headed by our class officers. The decor was set with a fountain, surrounded by columns draped with garlands. Chaperones were: Mr. & Mrs. Staiti, Mr. & Mrs. Upham, and Mrs. Sauer.

Class of 69

As we entered the halls of Barre High for our second and last year, we got off to a cheery start, electing the following officers: John Lapoti, President; Terry Lamacchia, Vice President; Gloria Hudson, Secretary; Paul Coppolino, Treasurer.

We placed second again in the magazine drive, which meant we could sit back and enjoy ourselves.

Our Sophomore Social was a big success and we thank everyone for the support they gave us.

We were also very well represented in sports. Dolly Cilley represented our class in the Prize Spinning Contest and placed second.

The Quabbin Regional will never replace the memories of Barre High, but will be something new, different and exciting for those attending.

Class of 70

As the last freshman class to enter Barre High, we anticipated our first year full of fun and entered with high hopes of a good education.

At our first class meeting we elected our class officers as follows: Carmelo Coppolino, President; Dennis McHugh, Vice-President; Karen Lylla, Secretary; David Salvadore, Treasurer; Robert Langelier, Student Council representative.

We ambitiously hoped to be the first freshman class to beat the seniors in the magazine drive. We placed third and provided entertainment at the Ice Cream Social.

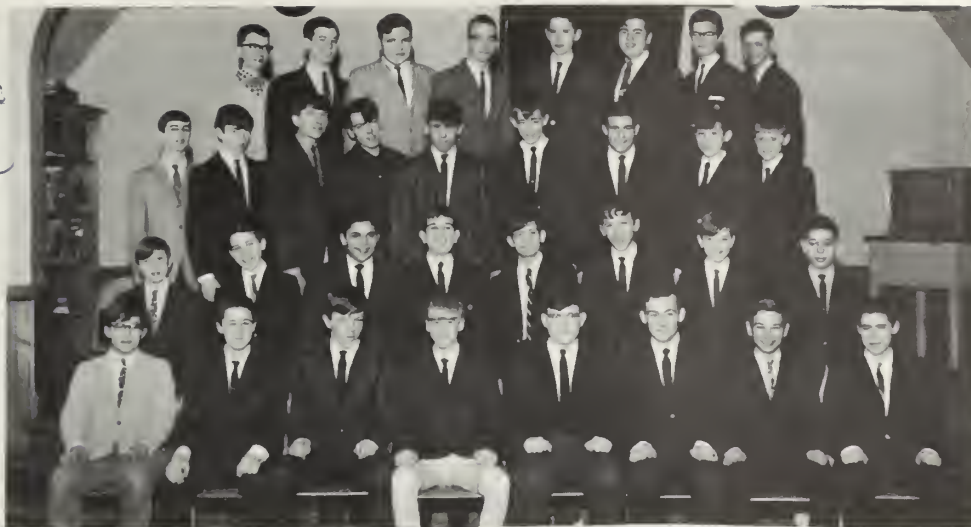

In basketball, baseball, soccer and cheerleading, we were well represented by many members of our class. In all other activities, our class took part enthusiastically. Nancy Hodson and James O'Donnell entered Price Speaking and won third and first prize respectively.

On becoming sophomores at Waabbin Regional, we hope, as the class of 1970, to obtain a good education and enjoy ourselves as much as we have here at Barre High School.

Basketball

The Barre High Basketball Team began its final season under the coaching of Mr. J. Michael Staiti. The mainstays of the starting five were: center, Edward Jackson; forwards, John Cutting and Paul Cilley; guards, John Lapati, Tom Mertzic, Peter Dufault, and Fred DiLibero.

Throughout the year the team showed fine hustle and very good spirit plus sportsmanship. The annual Alumni game was held with the high school team triumphing over the alumni squad.

A basketball banquet was held after the season for all basketball players, managers, cheerleaders, and coaches. Trophies were presented to Edward Jackson for rebounding and Paul Cilley for high scoring.
